Everybody needs Beauty Jane Harris, June 2014 inspired by John Muir, melody & arrangement adapted from a Baptist hymn

Everybody needs beauty, fountain of all life
Nature to heal and give strength to the body and soul
Places of freedom, places to play and pray
In every land, over the world as the round earth rolls

Somewhere a new day, somewhere a clear night
Forever showers fall and the dew never dries
Somewhere it's gloaming, somewhere it's breaking dawn
In every land, each in its turn as the round earth rolls

Pleasant and delightful Trad South-East English folk song

It was pleasant and delightful one midsummer's morn
When the fields and the meadows were covered with corn
And the blackbirds and thrushes sang on every green spray
And the larks they sang melodious at the dawning of the day

And the larks they sang melodious, and the larks they sang melodious
And the larks they sang melodious at the dawning of the day

Then a sailor and his true love were walking one day
Says the sailor to his true love "I'm bound far away.
I'm bound for the East Indies, where the loud cannons roar
I must go and leave you Nancy, you're the girl that I adore." ...

Then a ring from her finger she instantly drew Saying take this dear William and my heart will go too"
And as he embraced her, tears from her eyes fell Saying "May I go along with you?", "Oh no my love, farewell" ...

"So it's farewell my true love, I no longer can stay
For the topsail is hoisted and the anchor is weighed
And the ship she lies waiting for the next flowing tide
And if ever I return again, I will make you my bride" ...

Here's to all our Common Wealth Song Relay for 2014
Commonwealth Games in Glasgow: Phil Cunningham, Rody Gorman, Ali Burns & Findlay Napier

Is wealth the only treasury, is fortune weighed in gold?
Or is it where we plant our feet to turn this nation's wheel?

Ours the song and ours the land, and ours the auld lang syne,
For each and every hand to hold & every tongue to sing

And here's a health to all we share and here's a hand to hold, and here's to all our common wealth, that can't be bought or sold

This wealth is all our treasured land, the fortune that we dream,
Ideas cast in stone and song are cogs upon the wheel

May you find a place Words & arrangement by Jane Harris; melody Rose of St Magnus, Ivan Drever, learned from the fiddle playing of Duncan Chisholm

May you find a place
May you find a place to go
May you find a place to go, where you know, that you were meant to be

Whether heavenly isle or green wooded vale
Whether on the rolling sea...

Whether close to home or far distant shore
Whether all among folk or free...

Walk in the Light Trad Gospel after Aretha Franklin and Choir via Tony Backhouse

Walk in the light, beautiful light
Come where the dewdrops of mercy shine bright
Shine all around us by day and by night
Jesus the Light of the World.
*He's shining (oo), He's shining (ooo)
He's shining in my soul.*
